Downtown Street Sweeping Scheduled for April 17th

Mayor Edward A. Bettencourt Jr. announced that the Department of Public Services will perform street sweeping operations in downtown Peabody during the evening and overnight hours of Thursday, April 17th.

The sweeping will help prepare downtown Peabody for an influx of visitors expected for its annual Patriots Day ceremonies on Monday, April 21st. This year's holiday commemorates the 250th anniversary of the opening salvo of the American Revolution. Peabody and Danvers are collaborating to honor local militia who fought in the Battles of Lexington and Concord.

"This is indeed a milestone in our region's shared Revolutionary history," Mayor Bettencourt said. "Patriots Day is always such a poignant holiday and this 250th anniversary commemoration will be something truly special."

The following streets will be swept during the evening of Thursday, April 17, into the early morning hours of Friday, April 18th. Peabody Police will post "No Parking" signs on the afternoon of Tuesday, April 15th and will be on hand to ensure vehicles are removed from the streets according to this schedule:

- Walnut Street: No Parking 10 PM - 5 AM
- Washington Street: No Parking 11 PM - 5 AM
- Foster Street: No Parking 12 AM - 5 AM
- Main Street: No Parking 1 AM - 5 AM
